

INSURGENT GUNS POUND CAPITAL; HUNDREDS DEAD

Worst Bombardment Causes Night Of Terror, Misery

Madrid, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Insurgent artillery killed or wounded 91 persons in a destructive bombardment last night of this besieged city, once the proud capital of all Spain.

The number of casualties was given out in an official government report after a night of terror in which approximately 700 shells blasted the heart of the city.

Puffs of the shells hit Madrid's skyscraper—the telephone building—which since the civil war started has been struck 136 times.

Casualties were heavy on the Gran Via, where one shell exploded close to a crowd leaving a theater.

The government said 30 persons had been killed and 70 injured during an insurgent airplane bombardment of Campo de Casa, in Asturias province of northwest Spain. Many others were reported killed in nearby Infesto, where 100 houses were destroyed.

Rebels Claim Three Towns

The government said the insurgents had occupied three towns—San Martin de Bada, Torpe and Ballava de Badal on the northern Asturian front and, further south, had advanced to Tenarubia, near the Leon province boundary.

In combat on the Aragon front Monday near Puentes de Ebro the government said that 12, instead of seven, insurgent planes had been shot down. Five were said to have fallen in insurgent territory and the others behind government lines.

Heavy fighting was reported on the highway between Teruel and Zaragoza, near Puentes de Ebro, where infantry, protected by tanks, was said to have penetrated insurgent barbed wire defenses and occupied outposts.

Houses Demolished

Scores of bodies were dragged from demolished houses in the early morning darkness.

The hotel where Madrid's foreign visitors are housed was hit for the first time in more than 11 months of insurgent siege. Many buildings nearer the ministry of state were caught by the screaming projectiles.

The two-story ministry building itself was hit squarely by four shells. Apparently this structure was the chief target of the insurgent gunners. Most of the foreign newspapermen work there. Glass was shattered and cordite (an explosive) fumes filled the building.

Screams welled from the streets nearby but so far as was known no one was injured in the government building.

Ruling Asked On Right Of Turning Down Nominations

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—The attorney general's office reported that C. Everett Smith, state's attorney of Logan county, has asked a ruling on the legality of the public welfare department's rejection of county superintendent nominations.

Governor Horner ordered the committees of 42 counties to submit new nominations for the posts several days ago, on the ground that their earlier selections were predominantly one-party.

The county superintendents will handle the administration of old age assistance in the counties.

Score - or - Else—

Santa Barbara, Calif., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Ten dollars or two touchdowns was the fine imposed upon Howard Yeager, ace ball carrier for Santa Barbara State college, today.

"Say, you're almost as fast on the road as on the gridiron, aren't you?" commented Police Judge Fred T. Harsh of the grid star's speeding charge.

Yeager shifted uneasily. "Now, I'll tell you what I'll do," the judge continued. "You fellows are playing Redlands Friday night. I'm fining you $10 or two touchdowns against Redlands. Case continued pending outcome of the game."

Auto Factions

Chief fly in the automobile union ointment is Homer Martin himself, a loose-mouthed ex-Baptist preacher, with the ideals of his profession but, all its emotionalism as well. Martin is a great haranguer, can whip a crowd into a frenzy. He became head of the union partly because of that, partly because he was a compromise between two rival factions.

Those factions still exist, one of them under the influence of Jay Lovestone, former head of the Communist Party who was expelled by Moscow some years ago when, among other things, he advocated a policy of infiltration or "boring from within" other radical and liberal groups in the USA.

Although Moscow has now come around to almost identically that policy, Lovestone today is the bitter foe of Communism and has organized the "CPO" or Communist Party Opposition. His present complaint against Communism is that it is not radical enough.

Homer Martin, under the domination of Lovestone, simultaneously charges other UAW leaders with being "Reds" and dangerous radicals.

"Red" Old-Timers

Truth is that these "Reds" are some old-timers among the automobile workers, the Ruether brothers, Robert Travis and George Edwards, men who did the early organizing, staged the first successful strike at Flint, Mich. Martin, a newcomer in the industry, served as an automobile worker only two or three months. Now he has been transferring these original organizers to out-of-the-way posts.

It was friends of these men, irate at their treatment, who marched on Martin's hotel in De-

Washington—The Committee for Industrial Organization, meeting in Atlantic City this week, has one or two dents in its armor which indicate that all is not harmonious beneath the surface.

In piling up its vast membership of 4,000,000 members and outmaneuvering the A. F. of L. in most of the mass-production industries, the CIO has fallen into one of the chief mistakes which ripped open its rival—internal bickering.

Prima donnas of the CIO, like the craft union heads of the A. F. of L., now are pulling each other's hair backstage in the dressing rooms.

Chief prima donna row has been between David Dubinsky, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers, and Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers. Another has been between Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers, and some of his cohorts.

Knit-Goods Dispute

The Dubinsky-Hillman dispute has been over who shall organize and control the workers of the knit-goods industry. This may sound relatively unimportant, but for a time it threatened to cause a serious break between these two pillars of the CIO.

During the depression, Dubinsky's Ladies' Garment Workers slumped badly. Membership dropped to a new low. On the other hand Sidney Hillman's Amalgamated Clothing Workers weathered the storm, was even able to lend money to one or two factory owners.

With the NRA, however, the Garment Workers got a new lease on life, reached a present membership of about 225,000. Hillman's Amalgamated Clothing Workers meanwhile numbers about 200,000.

Dubinsky, intensely ambitious, was elected to the executive council of the A. F. of L. at San Francisco some years ago. When he returned, the Pennsylvania Station in New York couldn't hold his followers.

Lewis as "Solomon" rivalry between Dubinsky and Hillman, already at a high peak, reached the breaking point when it came to organizing the workers in the knit-goods industry. Hillman claimed the industry as a division of men's wear. Dubinsky claimed it as women's wear.

Finally they took their case to John L. Lewis. He decided that since Hillman was organizing the entire textile industry of 1,000,000 workers, it was only fair that the 75,000 workers in the knit-goods industry should go to Dubinsky.

Hillman, after some delay and demurring, finally agreed, and this little hair-pulling contest now is settled.

The situation within the United Automobile Workers, however, still is stewing, caused Homer Martin, head of the union, to pull a revolver on his own men in a Detroit hotel the other day. It will cause more headaches before it is finished.

"A Mistake"

Los Angeles, Oct. 14.—(AP)—The Coats twins—Lois and Louise—were rid of one set of twin husbands today but yearned for a second honeymoon with their first twin mates.

"They love us and we love them," said the girls of Roy and Ray Sebring, U. S. Marines, who are on duty in Honolulu.

The 24-year-old brunettes said in court yesterday their second marriage to Hubert and Herbert Sharpe at Marian, Ark., last December was a mistake—they "forgot" their divorces from the Sebrings were not final when they wed with the Sharpes.

The court annulled the Sharpe marriages.

G-Men Head West With Surviving Brady Gangster

Bangor, Me., Oct. 14.—(AP)—A cabin plane winged westward at dawn today carrying Brady gangster James Dalhove to a destination that was the secret of his G-men captors.

At the city airport one Federal agent said the survivor of the mid-west gang cut down in a gun battle Tuesday would be taken to Indianapolis; another said Chicago.

Myron Guerne, who led the FBI men in springing the trap that left Al Brady and Clarence Lee Shaffer, Jr., dead in a downtown street here, still was tight-lipped.

"You'll have to figure that out when we're in the air," he told questioners asking his destination.

Only the pilot, Guerne, other G-men and Detective Meredith Stewart of the Indiana state police were with the cabin plane took off at 4:10 A. M. C. S. T.

The pilot quickly shaped a westward course.

107 New Attorneys Ready to Practice

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Governor Horner handed out attorneys' licenses today to 107 members of a law class admitted to practice in Illinois in a Supreme Court ceremony.

Court attaches said it was the first time in many years that a governor had presented the licenses, a duty usually taken care of by the court clerk.

The motion for admission of the class was made by T. I. McKnight, Chicago attorney, with Justice Norman L. Jones of Carrollton replying for the court. The oath was administered by Chief Justice Paul Farthing.

Included in the class were Norman P. Jones, son of the justice; Len H. Small of Kankakee, grandson of former Governor Small; and Edwin W. Sale of Fisher, nephew of the late Chic Sale.

Before presenting the licenses, virtually all of which went to downstate candidates, Horner told the candidates they were "all seekers after fame and he earnestly hoped it would catch up with them in their deserving efforts."

To Len Small he said "give my regards to your father and I wish your grandfather was here to enjoy this happy event."

Investigation Of Fatal Shooting Spurred Today

Shreveport, La., Oct. 14.—(AP)—A coroner's report of "questionable suicide" spurred police investigation today of the fatal shooting Sunday of Lois Lewis, 22, and the wounding of her 21-year-old college student suitor, R. Downs Poindexter.

In a report hinting at a third person in the killing, Coroner Willis P. Butler declared yesterday the shooting of the young man was "apparently attempted homicide" and the death of the girl "questionable suicide."

The report added that fingerprints on the pistol found at the dead girl's feet in her home were not those of Poindexter or Miss Lewis.

Poindexter, wounded in the right hand, shoulder and cheek, testified at the coroner's hearing that the girl shot him and turned the gun on herself after he told her their three-year romance was over.

To Name Candidate For Circuit Judge

Delegates from the Lee county Republican central committee gathered at the Stephenson county court house at Freeport this afternoon to name a candidate for circuit judge to succeed the late Judge William J. Emerson of Oregon. The Lee county delegation was uninstructed while the Ogle county delegates were said to be prepared to give unanimous endorsement to Ogle county Judge Leon H. Zick of Polo.

It was reported that the Lee county delegation would support the candidacy of Judge Zick, although delegations from other counties comprising the judicial district were said to be considering the names of other candidates for the office.

Italian Report 58 Soldiers Slain

Rome, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Forty-one Italian officers and 17 soldiers have been killed in attacks by "Ethiopian bandits," an official announcement said today.

The announcement was the Fascist government's reply to repeated rumors of Ethiopian massacres. It did not mention the number of native troops killed, but informed sources believed it may have been large.

Pioneer Operator of Mine Succumbs

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—John M. Bryce, 74 pioneer coal operator, and owner of the Rex coal mine properties at Warren, Ill., died at Warren yesterday afternoon.

He started in the mining business at an early age and had been identified with it since, serving in an executive capacity in several mining concerns in various sections of the state.

Funeral services will be held at 3 P. M. Friday.

EVANGELIST IS ARRAIGNED ON MURDER COUNT

Kept Company With Daughter Of His Estranged Wife

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Miller Johnson, 47-year-old evangelist, faced arraignment today on warrants charging him with the double murder of his estranged wife and an automobile salesman at Mrs. Johnson's home last night.

Two brothers of the slain salesman, William Rue, 37, said he had been keeping company for several months with Mrs. Johnson's daughter, Lella, 23, and planned to marry her.

Police Sergeant Speed Sherron said Johnson signed a statement admitting the shootings and asserting he saw Rue and Mrs. William Johnson, 42, together in the living room when he returned last night to see one of his children.

Frank Utterback, a collector for a grocery company, said he was at the Johnson home when the small, gray-haired "interdenominational" preacher arrived, and heard him say something to Rue about "going with my wife." He said he left the house, and as he entered his automobile, he heard two shots.

Rue's body was found on the threshold of the front door. He had been shot through the neck. Mrs. Johnson, shot in the chest, was found dead in the bedroom of the three-room house.

Johnson surrendered at police headquarters a short time later, tossing a gun on Sergeant Sherron's desk.

Sherron said he understood Johnson had returned this week from Ashland, Ky., where he had conducted a revival meeting.

ACCUSED DISCHARGED

Centra, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—The Rev. J. K. Aichele, jailed on charges of immoral sex relations with several of his girl wards at the Hudson Orphans home, was discharged from the superintendency today by the home's board of trustees.

In a hastily-called meeting, the board issued a statement discharging the Rev. Aichele "because of public charges of immorality," and appealing to friends of the church-supported institution "to withhold adverse judgment and to support the board in its efforts to carry on the home for the benefit of these unfortunate children."

Dr. R. S. Douglass of Edwardsville, Ill., was placed in charge temporarily.

May Have Been Drunk

It is presumed by officials that the victim, stealing a ride, had started a fire to keep warm and had either fallen asleep or had been overcome by the smoke and gas from the fire and burned to death.

An inspection of the car this morning, according to Coroner Segner, revealed the finding of a bottle which had contained whiskey, a small amount of which remained in the bottle, giving ground to a theory that the victim may have been intoxicated when he built a fire with rubbish he found in the car. No other clues were found in the charred car.

Ross Kidnaping is Approaching Record

Washington, Oct. 14.—(AP)—As search for Charles S. Ross, 71-year-old Chicago kidnap victim, entered its 17th day, the retired manufacturer approached a record today for length of time spent in the hands of kidnapers.

Since 1933 only three major kidnapings have remained unsolved or the victims' whereabouts have been a mystery after 17 days.

August Luer, an Alton, Ill., meat packer, was released after 19 days when he paid $10,000 ransom in 1933.

A similar period elapsed before little June Robles, then six years old, was recovered from a cage on the Arizona desert in 1934.

Only one kidnap victim has returned alive after longer confinement. Edward G. Bremer of St. Paul, Minn., was kept by the Karpis gang 21 days before he won freedom with $200,000.

Pair Confronted By Murder Charge

Spencer, Ia., Oct. 14.—(AP)—Clay County Attorney Gilbert S. James today said he plans to file murder charges against both Paul Verner, 18, and Lowell Lair, 18, in connection with the slaying October 2 of Frank Jayne.

James said a charge of assault with intent to commit murder would be filed against Max Barnett, 22, James yesterday said Verner had confessed he crushed the skull of Jayne, his step-father, by hitting him with a heavy weight.

Lair admitted he was with Verner at the time of the slaying, the county attorney added, while Barnett was quoted by officers as admitting he struck Jayne with a crank handle last summer in an effort to kill him.

Balanced Federal Budget Demanded

Boston, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Orval W. Adams, newly-elected president of the American bankers association, demanded today a balanced federal budget and called upon the bankers of the nation to make "all of people deficit conscious."

Taking office at the close of the 63rd annual convention of the association, Adams, a Salt Lake City banker, proposed two steps toward balancing the budget, these, he said, must be:

"First a substantial decrease in government expenditures.

"Second, an increase in taxes more equitably distributed on a much broader base."

Referee Hopeful

Cleveland, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Referee Bull Weideman painfully rubbed his injured jaw today and hoped police would have a straight jacket handy when the rasslin' fraternity comes to town again.

Twice he was kayoed last night when Orville Brown, erstwhile village blacksmith of Wallace, Kan., knocked berserk by heavyweight champion Everett Marshall, started a one-man riot that took five cops, four rasslers and two customers to quell.

Ransom-Demanding Ghoul Hunted by Canadian Officers; Body Found

Streetsville, Ont., Oct. 14.—(Canadian Press)—The parents of Hayden Pope prepared today for the second burial of their son, whose body was found in a roadside ditch after being removed from its grave by a ransom-demanding ghoul.

A group of children found the body late yesterday in the deep ditch where it apparently was thrown by the robber upon becoming frightened at an intensive police hunt.

The 20-year-old youth, buried Sunday, was the son of a blacksmith in moderate circumstances.

Body of Negro, Burned To Death, Found in Box Car in Nelson Ry. Yards

A body, presumed by Coroner Dr. Kenyon B. Segner to have been that of a male negro, about 35 years of age and to have weighed about 150 pounds, was found burned to a crisp in an empty box car in Chicago & North-Western west-bound freight train No. 391 at about 12:30 o'clock this morning, when the crew of the train switched the car, which had been discovered ablaze at Nachusa, into a siding in the Nelson yards.

The body of the unknown was found near a closed door of the car, clothing and shoes having been consumed by the fire, making identification absolutely impossible. Several slices of burned bread, from which a wrapping paper had apparently been burned away, was found near the body.

Fire Seen at Nachusa

Dr. Segner, who was summoned to Nelson upon the discovery of the body this morning, told a jury at the Staples mortuary, to which he had ordered the body taken, that he had been informed by the train crew that the empty box car had been placed in the train at the Proviso yards last evening, and that at Nachusa fire had been discovered burning through the car flooring. The train crew carried the car to Nelson and set it out on a siding to extinguish the flame, when the gruesome discovery was made.

The coroner stated that the condition of the body made it impossible to determine whether the man had been the victim of foul play, and after taking all possible measurements, he ordered its immediate burial in the free lot at Oakwood cemetery.

"Repealer"

New York, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Bruce Barton, who wants to be known as "The Great Repealer," said today if elected to Congress he would "move to repeal a law a week."

The advertising executive, Republican nominee for congressman from the "silk stocking" 17th district here, said an afternoon in a law library convinced him "no other nation in the world is so ridden to death by legislation."

INTERVENTION IS CHRISOULAS FINAL CHANCE

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—On requests for intervention by Governor Horner apparently remained the only hope today that Peter Chrisoulas, condemned Chicago slayer, might escape death in the electric chair early tomorrow.

Before tonight the state pardon board planned to report to the governor about pleas it heard yesterday for commutation of the death sentence. Chrisoulas was found guilty of murdering Irving Fehlbiger, a theater manager.

Drummond, Wis.—(AP) — After this, when Roy Gore sees some-

EXPECT USUAL FALL DECLINE IN HOG PRICES

Averages of Year Ago
Likely to Be Maintained

Prices Illinois farmers receive for hogs are expected to go down some as they usually do during the late fall and winter months, according to P. E. Johnston, associate chief in agricultural economics, college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

But even with this usual decline, hog prices are expected to average at least as high as they did last year when the average price at Chicago was $9.90, he pointed out. Slaughter supplies during the coming marketing season ending April, 1938, are expected by the U. S. bureau of agricultural economics to be somewhat smaller than those a year earlier. Prospects are for a somewhat smaller tonnage of hogs for market and for the maintenance of a fairly high level of consumer demand for meats.

It now appears fairly certain that the 1937 corn crop will be much larger than that of 1936 and about the same as the 1928-32 average. With lower corn prices and a relatively high level of hog prices in prospect, the corn-hog price ratio in 1937-38 will be very favorable for hog feeding and hog production, it is pointed out.

Weights of hogs marketed in 1937-38 are expected to be considerably heavier than in 1936-37. The larger supplies of corn and the favorable relationship between hog prices and corn prices also are expected to result in a materially larger spring pig crop in 1938 than in 1937.

Most of the anticipated reduction in hog supplies for the fall and winter season will probably occur in the first three months, October through December, it is believed. Although supplies in this period will be considerably smaller than a year earlier, they will be seasonally larger than the small supplies of the past three months, July through September.

HELP 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

To Flush out Acids and Other
Poisonous Waste

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 2 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with aching and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the beginning of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

THE PASSION FOR LAYMEN

When President Roosevelt indicated a contempt for lawyers in his Constitution day address, and paraded the constitution as a laymen's document, he gave us some insight to his processes.

Perhaps it was his passion for laymen instead of experts that brought about the collapse of the Wyandotte dam, where millions of dollars of borrowed money went glimmering.

He called in his laymen to draw the emergency laws for the nation, instead of having them drawn by experienced statesmen of the two houses of congress, who have some capacity for drawing constitutional legislation. The result was that they collapsed after the manner of the collapse of the Wyandotte dam, but before it. The Wyandotte dam was on a false foundation, and so were the NRA and the AAA.

He called home Dr. O. M. W. Sprague, who was on leave of absence from duties in the United States to serve as economic adviser to the Bank of England, and attached him to the United States treasury department. Instead of consulting him, the president formulated his gold devaluation and price-raising policy on the advice and theory of Dr. George F. Warren, professor of farm management at Cornell university. As a price-raiser it has not yet gone high enough to collapse as did the Wyandotte dam. As a price-raiser it was just a flop.

United States engineers, an established division of the government which has been a credit to itself and to the government regardless of what party was in power, made reports upon the Florida canal and the Passamaquoddy project on the coast of Maine. Adverse reports were made on both from the standpoint of cost and economic value. With his passion for extermination of experts who know and his passion for decisions of laymen, he set aside the opinions of the United States engineers and went ahead with his laymen's theories, expending thereon millions of dollars. These laymen's projects may be expected to collapse as did the Wyandotte dam, and to prove the expertness of the United States engineers.

Lives of ten brave fliers were sacrificed in the decision to take the transportation of the mails away from experts and to put the business into the hands of laymen.

What we need is some expert in government and economics and not so much muddling by experimenting laymen.

ILLINOIS THIRD IN COAL PRODUCTION

Illinois is third among the states in coal production. Only Pennsylvania and West Virginia yield more coal, and each of them yields twice as much, which shows their wealth of supply.

In the annual report of the Illinois director of mines it was disclosed that fifty-eight counties of the state yield coal in quantities that induce mining operations. Franklin, Christian and Saline counties lead all the rest and together they yielded 20,000,000 tons.

Total production amounted to 51,475,899 tons. Of that amount, 47,000,000 tons were taken from 176 shipping mines, employing 40,011 men, while the remainder was mined in 1066 pits with only local operations, employing 9131 miners. The shipping mines worked an average of 153 days and the local mines an average of 115.

The report is for 1936, and the yield may be compared with that of 1935, which was 45,000,000 tons. The 55-year average was 41,000,000 tons. In 1882 production amounted to 9,115,061 tons.

Of the 1936 production railroads handled two-thirds.

Vast are the resources of Illinois in wealth under the surface, wealth produced from the soil, and the products of her industries.

Only a few weeks ago we noted that Illinois orchards had yielded 3000 car loads of peaches, which were estimated to be worth $1,500,000. Yet the peach crop is only an incident of the expansive agricultural operations of the state.

NATURE'S BALANCES

Conservation officials and a few farmers and sportsmen are beginning to learn that the alleged villain, the crow, is not so black as he is painted. In fact, there is a movement afoot to halt slaughter of the crow on the grounds that he is a useful bird.

It has been established that the crow is a great eater of grasshoppers. Ordinarily, judging by what we heard of the crow, he subsists largely on sprouting corn and the young, or eggs, of other birds. Corn is in condition to be pulled up by crows only a few days in the year, and young birds and bird eggs are available only a short time. Proponents of crow slaughtering seem to forget that the crow must subsist 365 days in the year, and that most of the crow's time is spent in being useful. Those who are inclined to spend their time "protecting" poultry yards, game birds and sprouting corn by shooting owls, hawks and other predators should remember that to that extent they are destroying the balance of nature.

It should be remembered that in its primitive state this country was a paradise for game birds, songbirds and fourfooted game of all kinds extant here, yet there was no one to kill off the murderous crows, hawks and owls, except perhaps the Indians, and we doubt whether they gave much thought to altruistic conservation.

We have no way of knowing whether nature's balance among wild things was achieved by fiat from on high, or whether it has been a trial-and-error process of evolution. And we have tinkered with that balance until this land, which might still be a paradise of game and songbirds, is practically devoid of them—a biological desert.

It is time to call a halt, and we are glad conservationists are busy.

Brain Twizzlers

By PROF. J. D. FLINT

You may have heard the problem of the squirrel and the hunter but it is always interesting to think about since it has puzzled people for years. A number of requests have come in to print it so here goes:

If a squirrel is on the trunk of a tree and a hunter walks around the tree but the squirrel keeps moving so that the tree trunk is always between him and the hunter, does the hunter walk around the squirrel?

This problem rests on true reasoning and has been used many times in tests of reasoning ability.

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S TWIZZLER

There are 145 ways of serving the desserts. There would be four groupings of combinations; 75 where pudding is given the 5 who will eat only that, 50 where one of the pair who will eat either is given pudding, 10 where either of the pair is given pudding, and 10 where both of the pair are given pudding—a total of 145.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.
Editor of Advance

James, reputed to be the brother of our Lord, is one of the most direct and practical of teachers. The counsel that he gave to early Christians in his general epistle is very good counsel for our own time. It is reinforced by very striking figures and illustrations.

Here in our lesson he is dealing with Christian speech, and strikingly he emphasizes the need of restraint and adequate discipline. He draws his illustration from the bridle by which a horse is controlled, and from ships, which though they are great and driven by rough winds, are turned about by a very small rudder.

"So the tongue," he says, "is a member, and boasteth great things." But the tongue needs control. "It is a fire: the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue."

How true that all is! The power of words, the way in which they can create wrong impressions, and convey injuries from which there may be no recovery! James sees the tongue as a sort of untamable beast, a restless evil full of deadly poison when it is not controlled.

"With the tongue," he says "we bless the Lord and Father, and with the tongue we curse men made after the likeness of God. Out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing."

What is man to do with this dangerous weapon of the tongue, that may affect his whole body? He is to seek wisdom, and he is to find that wisdom from above, the wisdom that is pure and peaceable and gentle; full of mercy and without hypocrisy.

There is no use hoping to control the tongue if there be not a right attitude of mind and heart; if there be not mercy in the soul, there will be little mercy in one's words, and if there be not a peaceable disposition, the tongue will be a breeder of strife and bitterness.

Few counsels for living life well are of more practical value than these plain words of James; and it ought to be remembered that "the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for them that make peace."

Peace does not come by chance. It comes through the attitude and action of those who prepare for it. The world is full of dissension and bitterness today because men have not sought peace and prepared for it. They have lusted for wealth and power and have cared more for their own way and interest than for the common good. James enforces the truth that peace and welfare do not come that way.

DAILY HEALTH

DIABETES AND THE GLANDS OF INTERNAL SECRETION

By Iago Galdston, M. D.

One of the great medical achievements in recent years was the discovery of insulin.

It marked the second important advance in treating those diseases known to arise from disturbances in the glands of internal secretion. The first was in the use of iodine for the prevention, and of thyroid extract for the treatment of cretinism and myxedema, two conditions charged to mal-function of the thyroid gland.

But, as frequently happens in medicine, the solution of one problem serves only to raise a few more.

In insulin, we have a tested treatment for diabetes. The hormone is derived from the pancreas of animals. But only a small portion of the pancreas gives insulin. That portion consists of the "islets of Langerhans," distributed throughout the pancreatic tissue in clumps of cells distinct from the rest.

The condition of hyper-insulinism proves that these "islets" are the source of insulin. This condition may be pictured as just the opposite of diabetes. It is associated with tumors of the glandular tissue of the pancreas. Knowing these facts, we might presume that the origin and cause of diabetes has been definitely determined. But diabetes is still a mysterious disease.

Several years ago, a young diabetic developed acromegalia, a disease traced to over-activity of the pituitary, another gland of internal secretion, located at the base of the brain. He was operated on and a tumor growth was removed from his gland. Oddly, not only did this operation arrest his acromegalia (enlargement of his bones, notably those of the head, hands and feet) but his diabetes disappeared as well.

The association of the pituitary to diabetes had been known and established previously. In experimental animals it had been shown that the removal of the pituitary alleviates the symptoms of pancreatic diabetes.

Now, to complicate matters, an English scientist, F. G. Young, reports that he has been able to render normal dogs permanently diabetic by injecting them with extracts derived from the pituitary glands of oxen.

It is too early even to hazard a guess where this may lead, but it is no gamble to label this a most significant observation.

Tomorrow—The Riddle of Intelligence

The 20,000 inhabitants of Guam owe allegiance to the United States but are not citizens. There is no legal provision whereby they can become citizens.

Ducks have increased 15 to 30 per cent in number in the last year, according to Hugh M. Worcester, agent of the biological survey.

Annual Institute of Lee Co. Teachers in Progress Here

About 350 teachers gathered in the high school auditorium this morning for the opening session of the annual Lee County Teachers' Institute.

Introduced by County Superintendent L. W. Miller, Dr. Claude E. Vick of Springfield, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, gave the initial address of the morning session. Dr. Vick chose for his subject "General Responsibilities and Opportunities of Education," in which he pointed out the teacher's duty to give students the full knowledge of his or her experience, to decide a way of life and work toward that end. Our democracy, he declared, is on trial and the teacher must assume the challenge not as an alarmist but as one able to give viewpoints on a definite stand.

Furthermore, he said, our capitalism is at the cross roads and the teacher's responsibility is to prepare the high school graduate for adjustment in a world where machinery is supplying the need for man-power. "We have made," he continued, "material progress, but what of social progress?" The defeatist attitude engendered by unemployment and economic trends must be replaced with a developed philosophy of life and an economic independence. Habits must be formulated to take care of the new leisure time and a program of recreation must supply the need for activity.

The "Five C's"

Dr. J. H. Williamson, former law enforcement commissioner for Chicago, gave the second address this morning when he spoke on "The Five C's."

The five C's, he declared, are Al Capone, crime, courts, conscience and country.

Dr. Williamson traced the gang life of Capone explaining how he was a social product of a peculiar American civilization. Al Capone, he stated, was peculiar to the American scene, that the laws of the country have allowed his existence because the courts have interpreted laws which aim to reform but make small effort to punish. "We do almost anything," he declared, "but punish the criminal; the lawyers see to that, and as a result 117,000 murderers walk free in our country."

The courts must be made to adopt a program of sense, simplicity and speed in the opinion of Dr. Williamson. "The security of life and property is your concern," he charged.

Georgian Speaks

The concluding address of the morning was given by Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools of Atlanta, Ga. In his talk Dr. Sutton indicated the falling enrollment in schools which he says is an indication of the growth toward an "old folks' world." The laws of immigration and the practices of birth control are the contributing factors for the fewer young people today.

Besides being fewer, he added, the I. Q. of the younger generation is falling rapidly and the inclination to criminal tendencies is increasing. The vast majority of youth is better, he concludes, but the minority is much weaker and unstable today.

Youth, however, in the opinion of Dr. Sutton is not entirely to blame and must be supplied with an influence which will stabilize youth. Work, a return to the primitive tastes, a cultivation of a desire to know the arts and religion he suggests are the best influences which can hold youth in check in this changing world.

The conference continued in an afternoon session, and tomorrow 1,200 or more teachers are expected here for the annual meeting of the Rock River division of the Illinois Educational association.

Other features of interest to the whole family will be presented on other evenings. Following the fellowship hour the group will divide into the various classes of the "Night College." W. C. T. U. Head Deplores Liquor Dispensary Rise

Canton, Ill., Oct. 14.—(AP)—State President Maude Pettys Fairburn, of Chicago, told delegates to the Women's Christian Temperance Union convention last night that the number of liquor dispensaries had increased from 177,000 before prohibition to 450,000 now.

"Many rosy promises were made," she said, "including the statement that repeal would vastly decrease the amount of drinking among the young people, that it would balance the state and national budgets by liquor taxes, reduce automobile accidents and end bootlegging."

"None of those promises," she added, "have materialized."

She said foreign liquor interests "poured vast sums of money into the country to create public sentiment in favor of repeal."

The four-day convention will end Friday.

Trevor, prominent senior, will act as toastmaster, introducing besides President Davidson and Mr. Lass, Dean Charles J. Adamec, Mrs. Wallace D. PROLONGED JAM ON ANTI-LYNCH BILL FORESEEN

Washington, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Administration strategists, seeking swift approval of a five-point program at the special session of congress next month, faced the possibility today of a prolonged jam over the anti-lynching bill.

The Senate, in order to get out of a parliamentary tangle in August, agreed formally to make the anti-lynching measure a special order of business immediately after a vote on farm legislation at the next session.

This agreement, parliamentarians said, was so worded that it holds for the special session called by President Roosevelt.

Leaders expressed belief the agreement would not endanger wage-hour or farm legislation but would throw a serious obstacle in the way of the president's three other proposals.

These are government reorganization, creation of regional planning authorities modeled after the TVA and strengthening of the anti-trust laws.

The wage-hour bill already has passed the Senate and would not be sidetracked by the anti-lynching debate unless the administration unexpectedly should abandon the bill now awaiting House action and should submit a new one.

No legislation in recent years has stirred such determined group hostility as the anti-lynching bill. It passed the house this year, but never reached the stage of formal debate in the Senate because of filibusters.

Local Osteopath Recognizes Old Teacher In Film

Dr. A. M. McNicol was pleasantly surprised at the Dixon Theatre last evening upon seeing the picture of his one time teacher of a good many years ago being flashed upon the screen. Dr. Ruddy was then a member of the faculty of the osteopathic college at Des Moines, Iowa. The doctor has since moved to Los Angeles and has been head surgeon of the Los Angeles College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. Dr. Ruddy was shown removing an open safety pin that had caught on the way down. The instrument used closed the safety pin and removed same through a bronco-scope with the aid of two X-ray fluoroscopic assistants.

MATSUOKA ADMITS JAPAN PLANS TO RULE ALL CHINA

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tientsin, Oct. 14—In an interview today Yosuke Matsuoka, American-educated president of the South Manchuria Railway Company, disclosed Japan seeks control of the whole of China to prevent it from falling prey to Soviet Russia and Communism.

The Japanese army, he said, intends to occupy Nanking, the Chinese capital. Matsuoka explained Japan's political and economic plans in North China had been delayed pending the clearing up of the Shanghai situation, as a fundamental solution in the north was impossible until the Chinese troops were defeated and Nanking occupied.

Eighty per cent of the Chinese economic and political leadership, he said, is concentrated around Shanghai, while the coastal zone and northern provinces constitute 90 per cent of China.

"If the 10 per cent chooses to go Communist, let it," Matsuoka said. "It is better for Japan to hold the 90 per cent than lose the whole of China and permit the country to go over to the Soviet. The greatest aim of Japan is to save China from Communism and the Kuomintang (the dominant nationalist political party)."

The Japanese, he declared, were unable to achieve their aims in China by counter-propaganda and were forced, therefore, to employ their strongest weapon, namely, the army.

Matsuoka asserted that every nation rightfully used its strongest weapons to combat its opponents and the Japanese were unequal to others in propaganda and intrigue.

HALAS GLOOMY OVER CHICAGO BEARS CHANCES

Afraid Cardinals Will Upset His Powerful Crew

BY ROCKY WOLFE
George Halas is in the "dumps". He is convinced that unless the Bears do better than they did against the Cleveland Rams that they will take it on the chin Sunday when they clash with the Cardinals in the opening home game of the National league at Wrigley Field.
The fact that the Bears won by a comfortable margin last Sunday and that the Cards took a healthy trimming at the hands of the Packers, gave the Bears boss no feeling of jubilation. In his opinion the Bears were extremely sour against a comparatively weak outfit, the Packers were red-hot and the Cardinals had an off day. On top of this, Mr. Halas knows that the Cardinals always shoot their best against the Bears.
However, regardless of the whys, ifs and buts, Sunday's game will be the thirty-fourth renewal of the oldest rivalry in organized pro football, a series that started with a Cardinal victory (7 to 6) in 1920 and which has since seen the Bears win 21, lose 6, and tie 6. Last year the Bears won the first tiff 7 to 3 and lost the next one 14 to 7.
New Players Introduced
A flock of brand new players in the league will be introduced by the Bears. They are Dick Plasman, Vanderbilt, Henry Hammond, Southwestern of Memphis, George Wilson, Northwestern and Lester McDonald, Nebraska, ends; Delbert Bjork, Oregon, tackle; Kay Bell, Washington and Bill Conkright, Oklahoma, guards; and John Bett-ridge, Ohio State, Ray Buivid, Marquette and Sam Francis, Nebraska, halfbacks and fullbacks, respectively.
With the exception of Buivid who was signed this week, and who is not likely to see much, if any real action, survived the most terrific

WILDCATS' BIG TEST AGAINST BOILERMAKERS

Decisive Win Will Improve Chances For Crown

Chicago, Oct. 14—(AP)—Saturday, the day when Purdue's Boilermakers invade Doyne Stadium, looks like tipoff day on Northwestern's chances of hanging on to the Big Ten football title.
The Wildcats weren't the choice to repeat before the season started—Minnesota having been accorded the favorite's position—and their victories over Iowa State and Michigan didn't prove to Coach Lynn Waldorf that he has another title eleven. But, if they take care of Purdue decisively, the defending champions probably will have reason for hoping to get through the rest of their conference schedule without a beating.
Waldorf continued to devote most of his attention to the Wildcat line yesterday, trying to improve its offensive play.
The Boilermakers spent their last hard practice on polishing up the running and passing attack built around brilliant Cecil Isbell, and in going over a defense calculated to stop Northwestern's Don Heap, Jack Ryan, Bernie Jefferson and Bob Swisher.

Down at Illinois, Bob Zupke was almost outspokenly pleased with the improvement in offensive power as the Illini wound up heavy work for Saturday's battle at Indiana. Coach Bo McMillin of the Hoosiers, was forced to patch up his backfield when he learned that Bill Anderson, a passing star against Minnesota, would not be able to operate against Illinois because of injuries.
Practice in Secret
Minnesota practiced in secret as Bernie Bierman experimented with backfield combinations in preparation for the Michigan invasion. The Wolverines, whose work pleased Harry Kipke earlier in the week, lapsed so far that they were ordered out for a night drill in addition to the regular afternoon session.
Iri Tubbs gave Iowa's squad another long offensive scrimmage in an effort to develop punch before meeting Wisconsin. The Badgers were let off with a light drill to permit healing of an assortment of bruises.
Chicago staged another spirited workout and showed enough stuff offensively to generate hopes of a victory over Princeton this week. At Notre Dame, Elmer Layden indicated he planned to take a chance on sophomores against Carnegie Tech by using Joe Thiesing of Cincinnati at fullback during the entire drill, and turning the quarterback duties over to Steve Sitko of Fort Wayne, Ind., for a big share of the time.

OKLAHOMA CITY FOUR-BALL MEET ATTRACTS PROS

Oklahoma City, Oct. 14—(AP)—Some of the nation's greatest professional golfers today opened their campaign to strengthen their bank balances with a share of Oklahoma's first annual $5,000 four-ball tournament prize.
The visiting shotmakers moved in with a north wind and damp weather for practice rounds but prospects for today's tee-off favored better weather.
Jimmy Thompson, one of the game's longest hitters, and Tommy Armour, runner-up for the 1935 P. G. A. crown here, turned in 64s, seven under par, at the Oklahoma City Golf and Country club, as they turned up for competition.
They are paired against local pros.
The national open champion, Ralph Guldahl, and former titleholder, Billie Burke, will team against Ed Dudley of Philadelphia and blond Johnny Hines of New York. Dudley formerly was pro of the home club.
Harry Coope, whose money winnings this year top them all, and Horton Smith tangle with fellow Chicagoans Ky Laffoon and Dick Metz.
Little Paul Runyan and Lawson Little, former U. S. and British amateur titlist, go against Johnny Revolta, of Milwaukee, who took the 1935 P. G. A. title here and a lanky Texan, Ray Mangrum.
The tourney closes Sunday, following seven 18-hole rounds, each team meeting all other teams in competition. Scoring is on a point basis and there are no eliminations.

SOX CAPTURE CITY SERIES FOURTH TIME

Went Full 7 Games To Triumph Over Chi-Cubs

Chicago, Oct. 14—(AP)—It took them longer than usual to prove it, but the White Sox of the American league, are still Chicago's city baseball champions, and $549.54 apiece wealthier.
The Sox, who devoted a total of eight games to conquering the National leaguers in 1933 and 1936, had to go back to 1931 for precedent this time, but cleaned up the problem yesterday by winning the seventh game, 6 to 1, behind the sparkling hurling of John Whitehead. Thus, the White Sox made it four city series in a row, as well as their 15th triumph, against six Cub victories and one tie.

For Whitehead, the victory was his second in the series. He pulled the Sox up even at two victories apiece last Saturday by holding the Cubs to seven hits while his support lashed out a 14 to 2 decision. Yesterday he was frisked for nine hits, but kept himself out of serious trouble by feeding Cub batters the doubleplay ball on four occasions. The victors picked on Curt Davis and Tex Carleton for seven blows and didn't waste any of them.

Cubs Collect $393.40 Each
The Cubs who collected $393.40 each in making their most determined warfare since 1931 in city series warfare, won the opening game, 7-3, behind a five-hit pitching performance by Tex Carleton. Vernon Kennedy allowed the Cubs only three hits as the Sox squared it, but Larry French put the northsiders ahead again by winning the third game, 4 to 1, holding the Sox to four hits.
Whitehead's seven-hitter squared it again, and Monty Stratton and Clint Brown outlasted Carleton and Charley Root for a 6 to 4 decision which put the American leaguers ahead for the first time. French came back for his second victory Tuesday, forcing the series to the seven-game limit.

Although outscored 35 to 25, for the series, the Cubs turned in a team batting average of .295 to .249 for the Sox. Billy Herman, the Cubs' second baseman, led both sides with a .407 mark, while Rip Radcliff topped the winners with .385.

Steward Baseball Banquet Draws 100 Fans From Lee County, Ex-Players Speak

Steward Man Owns Ball Given Him 56 Years Ago

The eighth annual Steward baseball banquet was celebrated last evening by more than a hundred fans in the gymnasium at the Steward high school. The American and National league fans from all sections of the county assembled to enjoy the dinner served by the Ladies' Aid society of the Steward Methodist church and the novel program to follow. The annual gathering of baseball fans which for the first few years, was confined to Steward and vicinity, has grown to cover the entire Lee county section and portions of Ogle county. For several years the gatherings grew under the active leadership of Frank Hewitt of Steward.
Attendance at last evening's gathering was the smallest in years and arrangements were launched at the opening of the program to re-portion the of the last few years. Those selected to have charge of next year's events were chosen as follows: National league, Stoddard Danekas, Thomas F. Kirby, L. G. Lathrop; American league, J. M. Thompson, Charles Diller and William Daum. The above names were submitted by the nominating committee composed of Claude Herrmann, Frank Hewitt and Paul De-tig.

Thompson Toastmaster
After the banquet, Millard M. Fell named Prof. J. M. Thompson, superintendent of the Steward schools, to act as toastmaster. Sheriff Ward Miller, former Chicago Cub outfielder and National leaguer, was called upon to give some reminiscences of the national game. He called the attention of his listeners to many important possibilities of baseball.
"The continual championships by the New York Yankees is not for the good of the game, and if continued is bound to create a loss of interest in the national pastime," the sheriff stated. "The Yankees do not play a super brand of baseball by any means, but their power enables them to win."

"The much discussed deadened ball is bound to help the game. The fans will see more clever base work, fielding and hitting over the present game with the batter more or less a mechanical unit. The old-timers in the game today are at a loss to understand the present day game of baseball as played in the big leagues. The cleverness and fight has gone, high-salaried stars are built up and the game generally has been allowed to become more or less mechanical. The major leagues realize the danger ahead and are considering the acceptance of a deadened ball."
Short of Materials
"All of the clubs in the major leagues are not coming up fast enough to fill the shoes of the older players. I strongly favor the encouragement in playing baseball among boys in every community, large or small. It not only engages the youth in clean, sportsmanlike pastime, but develops baseball players who are now in demand in the big leagues and each year that demand is growing greater and greater. The fans should interest themselves in making possible the development of the boys of the community in baseball, and by so doing, not only benefit the youth but the game as well."
Several players of recent years and some of more than half a century ago were called upon for short talks. The most interesting of these was the brief talk by Morris Cook of Steward, who stated that he has in his possession, a baseball which was presented to him 56 years ago by the late Wesley Steward, who at that time was manager of the Steward baseball club. The ball, the speaker said, was in excellent state of preservation, not a stitch being broken.
The talks of baseball players of former years were brief but inter-

FOOTBALL SLATE CRAMMED WITH CLASSIC TILTS

Ivy League and Intercollegiate Contests Vie For Attention

New York, Oct. 14—(AP)—Talent and tradition, twin geni of football rub the lamp to produce a national football program for Saturday that includes a dozen games entwined by Ivy and a half-dozen others, intercollegiate and otherwise, with a short but snappy tradition of hard play.
Chief mid-western attraction is the Minnesota-Michigan rivalry. Two unbeaten eleven, Yale and Army, clash at New Haven. Fordham and Pitt vie with the New Haven clash for top attention in the east.
Cornell, currently the east's hottest eleven despite the loss of the redoubtable George Peck, meets Syracuse in the Orange's first big test under Ossie Solem. Columbia and Penn, each beaten but still dangerous, clash at New York, and two other Ivy clubs, Harvard and Navy, will go "all out" at Baltimore.
Colgate and Tulane journey to Buffalo for another game of a series which has produced plenty of top-flight football.
South's Standbys
Auburn meets Mississippi State in one of the south's standbys and Georgia Tech meets Duke, but the top contest of the section appears to be the Alabama-Tennessee battle. And don't overlook the L. S. U.-Mississippi clash, another storied encounter.
The coast is quiet although Washington State-Washington and Southern California-Oregon offer high class entertainment.
Intersectionally Carnegie, a bit battered, plays a Notre Dame team that should be improving. Princeton invades Chicago to make up for that Cornell defeat, and Holy Cross entertains Georgia with the Crusaders' able Bill Osmanski in full flight. Southern Methodist clashes with Vanderbilt, Catholic university and Detroit mix in the Titan's backyard and Miami and Bucknell play at Lewisburg, Pa., Friday night.

72-YEAR ACRE YIELD RECORDS TOPPED IN STATE

Corn and Oats Highest Since Crop Service Was Organized

Corn and oat yields per acre this season are the highest in the 72 years for which Illinois crop records are available, according to the October 1 joint crop report of the Illinois and federal departments of agriculture.

Soybean, cowpeas, tame hay, rye, cotton yields are above and spring buckwheat, fruit, broomcorn, and wheat, barley, white and sweet potato yields per acre are somewhat below average. Winter wheat yield held up to average due to a good crop in southern Illinois offsetting the sharp variation in yield and quality northward. Pasture condition is below average.

September rainfall was light and weather was favorable for maturing corn and soybeans, silo filling, late hay harvest and securing fruit and vegetable crops, though adverse for plowing and fall pastures. Rains since October 1 have improved soil conditions for fall wheat and rye over a large part of the state. Early reports indicate that the acreage sown to fall wheat and rye will be somewhat less than a year ago. The combined production of all crops is well above average and grain feed crops are the best in years quite generally.

Hybrid Helps Yield

Illinois corn production outlook is now placed at 415,844,000 bushels compared with the 1936 crop of 217,751,000 bushels and the five-year (1928-1932) average of 336,738,000 bushels. The average yield per acre at 44 bushels tops the previous high record of 43.0 in 1932 and compares with 23.5 in 1936 and the 10-year average of 36.0 bushels. Exceeding the state production of 422,131,000 bushels in 1932, the present Illinois corn crop is the largest since 1910. In addition to a favorable corn season the increased acreage of hybrid corn has contributed to the present record corn yield. Late summer and early fall weather has been ideal for maturing and drying corn earlier than usual. The crop was largely made ahead of rather general frosts during the last week of September.

Quality outlook is very favorable except for some frost damage to later fields, chiefly in northeastern, and drought damage to some upland corn in parts of southern Illinois. About two per cent of the crop had been husked up to October 1, mainly for farm feed needs. Moisture content has been too high in the bulk of the crop to crib or ship safely. With good weather, husking for cribbing will soon be under way and become rather general by October 15. Most of the state has a good to excellent crop with the general average better in the western than in the eastern half of the state.

Oats Establish Record

Illinois yield per acre of oats at 45.5 bushels is the high record. Previous highs of 45 bushels were made in 1915 and 1917. The 1936 yield was 23.5 and the 10-year (1923-1932) average is 33.6 bushels. State oats production on a moderate acreage is 160,615,000 bushels compared with 99,608,000 last year and the five-year average of 152,009,000 bushels. All counties shared in the good crop with county yields extremely large in the central, west central, and northwestern areas. U. S. oats production estimate is 1,152,433,000 bushels compared with the 1936 crop of 789,100,000 and the five-year average of 1,215,102,000 bushels.

The soybean crop outlook for Illinois at 22,135,000 bushels is the largest since the record crop of 24,012,000 bushels in 1935 and compares with the 1936 crop of 17,216,000 bushels. The yield per acre is now placed at 19 bushels or down a half bushel from the September 1 estimate. This compares with the average for the past five years of 17.6 bushels and the 1936 yield of 16 bushels. Combining and threshing is under way. Quality of beans is good. Soybean hay harvest is nearing completion with reports showing exceptionally large yields per acre. The soybean production outlook for the six leading states is placed at 35,539,000 bushels compared with 27,459,000 bushels last year.

Prominent Lawyers Doubt They Could Pass Bar Exam Now

New York, Oct. 14.—(AP)—Samuel Leibowitz and Samuel Untermyer, both lawyers of parts, doubt if they could pass the bar examinations today.

"I'd like to know," said Untermyer, standing before Supreme Court Justice William T. Collins, "whether I or any other member of the bar could pass the bar examinations today."

"I couldn't," said Leibowitz distinguished criminal lawyer.

"I wouldn't get to first base on the law of trusts, for instance. I've specialized in one kind of law."

"To pass the examinations in all phases of law we'd have to go to college for four years ago, and where would we be meanwhile?"

The discussion was apropos of a case in which the two attorneys were arguing licensed foreign physicians should be permitted to practice here without re-examination.

In 1912, the ice bridge between Minnesota and Isle Royale, large island in Lake Superior, remained solid unusually long, and moose colonized the island. Today, these animals are so numerous that their presence there has become a problem.

Beardstown Wilds Too Much Even For The Game Wardens

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14. — (AP)—The wilderness around Beardstown is too much, even for the game wardens.

With a guide and companion, Peter J. Erio, chief game inspector of the state conservation department, set out early Tuesday afternoon to check duck holes a few miles northeast of Beardstown.

Seven hours later, Erio and his companions still were trying find their way out of the dense foliage and high trees. Finally, they came across the big drift of the Sanga-

Barber And Beauty Parlor Operator Taking To Waves

Quincy —(AP)—A 20-foot sailboat, the Spendthrift, loaded down the Mississippi river today because a honeymooning barber and his bride, a beauty parlor operator, "got tired of seeing permanent waves and thought we'd try the Mississippi's waves."

Mr. and Pyl Ratcliffe, who were married recently in Moline; stopped here en route to New Orleans on a 1400-mile cruise they expect to complete in six weeks. They sleep in the tiny boat's cabin and cook their meals aboard.

Roast beef, chicken, fish, chops and steaks, in the order named, are the most popular kinds of meats consumed on dining cars by the American traveling public.

The degree of light in which a bird chooses to incubate its eggs has much to do with determining the coloring of the eggs.

Real force within the UAW is Wyndham Mortimer, a former United Mine Worker. He acts as chief negotiator when it comes to contracts, is now negotiating with General Motors, expects to conclude successfully within the next few weeks.

Martin has difficulty following a consecutive train of argument, is a poor negotiator.

John L. Lewis, sometimes accused of aspiring to be American czar of labor, has been urged by CIOers to houseclean the Automobile Workers. He replies:

"These are just growing-pains. These officers were elected by the men themselves, and you've got to let the people in the individual unions work things out for themselves."

Note—The United Automobile Workers has jumped from almost nothing to nearly 500,000 dues-paying members in one year.

Merry-Go-Round

Representative Luther Johnson of Texas is telling friends that one thing that impressed him most during his recent tour of twelve European countries was the complete absence of hitch-hikers. Justice Owen J. Roberts will go on the air October 18. The occasion will be not only his first radio address since joining the Supreme Court, but the first speech he will have made during a court term. Roberts will talk briefly at a banquet in Philadelphia, opening a $12,500,000 drive by the University of Pennsylvania, his alma mater. SEC Commissioner Mathews recently was a participant in a pool operation—an office pool on the outcome of the World Series. Mathews won the pot—a total of $5.

FIRST AID STATION STOPS ACCIDENTS

Amarillo, Tex.—(AP)—Red Cross safety experts are beginning to wonder if psychology might not have something to do with automobile accidents.

There had been many serious accidents on a stretch of the Denver-Amarillo highway north of here. A Red Cross first aid station was established, with markers on the highway.

For a year now, since the Red Cross signs have been beside the pavement, there have been no accidents of consequence.

"We have observed that a majority of drivers slow down when they see the Red Cross signs," says F. E. Greenwood, safety director in charge of the station.
